GERMAN FREMONT MEETING.

The GERMAN FREMONTERS hold a meeting this (Wednesday) evening at the Camp House, and will be addressed by Dr. RAUCH, of Kenosha, and others.

An Assertion.

Whenever the News feels at a loss for argument, it resorts to coarse personalities. We shall not follow its example, but continue to expose its falsehoods and deceptions as usual. It says, for example:

"We assert that Fremont accepted a K. N. nomination, that he is supported by Know Nothings of the North, by their papers and their leading men, while Mr. Buchanan is opposed by the same men and papers."

A Know Nothing Convention met at Philadelphia to nominate candidates for President and Vice President. Slavery and Doughfaceism ruled the day there as at Cincinnati, and a large portion of the delegates withdrew, making the slavery question the issue. The seceders, generally known as the "North Americans," finding Col. Fremont standing as the prominent candidate of the great host of Republicans, who represent the sentiment of Freedom, determined to support him, and told him so by a nomination.

Col. FREMONT accepted the tender of their support, on the one issue of Slavery, and the movement to restore the government to its old position on that vexed question. He would doubtless accept the votes of South Carolina itself, if tendered him for such a purpose.

Col. FREMONT is supported by a part of the "K. N's, their papers, and leading men of the North"—as he is by all, of whatever former political notions, who, in the contest between Slavery and Freedom, take the free side. Still, a large portion of the K. N's of the North, whose attachment to Slavery and love for spoils blinds them to the issue, either support Mr. Fillmore, so as to help Buchanan, indirectly, or openly avow their preference for the latter. At the South, the feeling is about equally divided between Buchanan and Fillmore. Wherever they are persuaded that the former can poll the heaviest vote, they support him, K. N.'s and all, to help Slavery, and vice versa.

Slavery is the one question, the one issue, with them; and despite the clouts of the Northern Democracy to shirk it, the people of the North have accepted it.

We do not care—and we presume Col. FREMONT does not care—for the bygones of parties. The only question is, "Whatever you have been, Whig, Democrat, Free Soiler, Abolitionist, or K. N., or what not, ARE YOU NOW FOR FREEDOM, OR FOR SLAVERY?" We, as old Whigs, are for FREEDOM.

The Railroad Land Grant.

There was a rumor it town yesterday, that the Committee of Twenty-One had decided to leave Columbus out as a terminal point of the Northwestern road, leaving Madison only in the bill. We refuse to believe it, except by the report of the Committee itself. It would be so manifestly a blow struck at Milwaukee, which has done ten times over what any other locality in the State has done for the railroad intergests of the State, and for thus developing its resources, that we cannot believe it. We wait further advices.

THE APPORTIONMENT BILL.—The Assembly was hard at work yesterday on this important bill. It must go through all its stages and become a law so that the writs can be issued under it from the Secretary of State's office to-morrow, or else have no effect on the fall election, as forty days' notice is necessary.

FROM MADISON.

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, Thursday, Sept. 23.

The Legislature begins to grow restive at the long delay of the Select Committee on the Land Grant to make report of their doings, and this morning the Assembly, by a very strong vote, passed a resolution calling upon the Committee to report to-morrow. The unreasonable and unnecessary delay of the Committee grows out of conflicting personal claims and rival local interests, which unfortunately find representatives and champions among the members. Hence long and vehement disputes over details which ought not to engage the attention of the Committee, to the prejudice of more important matters. Hence, too, frequent changes in the leading features of the bill, as this, or that interest predominates in Committee.

Thus Columbus, at one time agreed upon as a starting point for the Northwestern Line, was yesterday struck out in Committee and may be restored to-day. And thus the names of gentlemen are voted in, as Corporators one day, who may be voted out the next. Indeed there is every prospect of an angry and protracted fight over the Mammoth Land Grant, and too much reason to fear that in this fierce struggle between private, political and local interests, the object of the grant and the public welfare will be alike forgotten. I trust, however, that the Legislature, in the disposition of the grant, will ignore all minor considerations and look only to the general good.—Especially do I trust that the Republicans in the two Houses, who must bear the responsibility for whatever is done, will see to it that no action is taken on the subject which will redound to their discredit; or to the detriment of the State.

The rightful course appears to me to be a plain one. Let the administration of the grant be entrusted to men, known out of the State as well as in it, to be honest, trustworthy, of practical business talent, and in good financial standing; men whose names will command what foreign capital will be needed to prosecute these great enterprizes. Let the starting points named by Congress in the grant be fixed in the bill—let the corporations be required to build their respective roads by the shortest and most practicable routes—let favorable running connections, on equal terms, be secured to all other Railroads in the State, coming to, or crossing the Land Grant roads, and what more is necessary?

In the Senate this morning a number of bills, of local rather than general interest, were passed. The joint resolution of the Assembly, directing the Select Committee on the Land Grant to report to-morrow, was amended, so as to extend the time to Thursday morning, and in this shape concurred in. One or two members of the Committee expressed their entire confidence that the Report would be ready to-morrow. It is high time, for if the Legislature finds as many difficulties in the way as the Committee seems to have done, it will require two or three weeks' discussion to settle matters. Let us hope for a speedier solution of this knotty question.

In the House, after the morning hour expired, the Apportionment Bill was taken up in Committee of the whole, discussed, amended and finally referred to a committee of five with instructions to report to-morrow. I think there is a strong disposition to pass a bill and, with most members, a desire to make a fair apportionment. No other business of special interest was transacted to-day.

The consolidation of the Watertown and La Crosse Companies occasions a good deal of remark here and is seized upon by some of the indiscreet friends of Madison as an occasion of quarrel with, and unjust aspersions upon Milwaukee. The potent object of these attacks upon Milwaukee and the misrepresentations of the terms and objects of the consolidation, is to influence the Legislature to give Madison and its R. R. connections southwardly, the exclusive benefit of the Land Grant. I cannot believe that the Legislature will make so unfair a disposition of the Grant, or seek to build up Chicago at the expense of the commercial cities and seaports of our own State. If Columbus, as well as Madison, be made a starting-point of the road, the Lake Shore equally with the central towns and counties of the State, will benefit by the grant; but if Madison alone is named, it will discriminate unfairly and inexcusably against Milwaukee, Racine, Kenosha &c for the advantage of Madison and Chicago.

The weather to-day is clear, but cool, with a brisk North-East breeze. The country thirsts for rain, of which the equinoctial season has yet brought us but a scanty supply. There is no diminution in the numbers of the Third House, but considerable impatience for more speedy progress in the work of the other two Houses.

R. K.

MEETING AT THE CAMP HOUSE LAST NIGHT.—There was not a large meeting at the Fremont Camp House last night, but at least six times as many people as were on Market Square. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. VAUGHN, GEO. EATON, of N. Y., Prof. FINNEY, and A. E. BOVAY Mr. EATON's address was an admirable one, classic and eloquent. He does honor to his name.

Mr. BOVAY gave a brief statement of the progress of the Kansas relief train which left our city. He saw them 9 miles on their way from Mt. Pleasant towards Kansas, going forward in good spirits, well provided with everything, in fact the best provided of any of the companies that have gone forward. By the time the parties reach Kansas, it is thought their numbers will have reached 500.

Tremendous Demonstration!

The Buchaniers of the 7th Ward had a magnificent time on Market Square last night. They had the cannon, the bonfires, the music, and all the preparations for a grand pow-wow, except the People, who didn't come. At about ½ past 8, we were along there, when a little squad of about 75 men were doing their best to comfort each other.

Why he went Home.

Mr. Breckinridge, candidate of the Pro-Slavery Democracy for Vice-President, made a speech at Hamilton, Ohio, and soon after went home, sick and disgusted. It is said that his labors were making Fremont men every day, out of true blue-democrats. No wonder. Here is what he thinks, and what he said at Hamilton, about the Declaration of Independence:

We are told that the Declaration of Independence is embodied in the Constitution of the United States! The Declaration is an abstraction. Put it in the Constitution and what would follow? It would follow that the Constitution must protect every man in his right to "life, liberty and happiness!" . . . You would find it interfering with the institutions of the States, and it would lead our country rapidly to destruction. But why do I speculate upon what it would do? Long before this our Union would be obliterated forever. It would become as intolerable and hateful, as its past has been beneficent and glorious.

Rufus Choate and Mr. Breckinridge seem to put about the same estimate upon the Declaration of Independence!

Farmers and Mechanics Club of Whitewater.

The Farmers and Mechanic's Club holds its Annual Exhibition and Fair at Whitewater today and to-morrow, and there will be a fine Exhibition of the Stock, produce, and manufactures of the thriving farmers and mechanics thereabouts. The Whitewater Kansas Aid Society have a public dinner on the Fair Ground on both days, the proceeds of which is to be devoted to the relief of the sufferers in Kansas.

THE "INVESTIGATION."—The News publishes the long-winded, verbose, defiant reply of Messrs. SMITH and GRAY, to the report of the Investigation Committee. The reply was characterized by Speaker HULL as a tissue of lies. The News offers to exchange the type with its cotemporaries for that of the Report—an offer which it can very safely make, since it is assured that the report has been distributed for some days.

VERONA, May 22, 1856.

As my last letter was closed rather abruptly, I had not time to allude to the fact of taking leave of our mooleers, our faithful horses and noble mules. We had all been together for upwards of twenty days, sharing each other's toils and pleasures, fears and hopes. It is astonishing what burdens the latter will bear, carrying them over mountains, through streams and across marshes where it would seem almost impossible for any creature to pass. But in these mountainous countries particularly, they are extremely useful, and almost indispensable. They have great sagacity, oftentimes using judgment almost as acute as that of men, for there is no animal instinct that can take the place of reasoning from cause to effect.—There was one poet sang the poor derided mule's merits, and who must have experienced, as we did, his usefulness and fidelity among the mountains. He thus pays to him the following tribute, in speaking of his mule who had served him as faithfully as ours had us:

"Shunning the loose stone on the precipice—
Snorting suspicion—while with sight, smell, touch,
Trying, detecting, where the surface smiled;
And will deliberate courage sliding down,
Where, in his sledge, the Laplander hath turned
With looks aghast."

On the day of our arrival at Beyrout we passed over the mountains of Lebanon, which are here very high, barren and desolate—only being dotted here and there by dark patches of green, being groves of cedar and pine trees. It was from these forests that timber for the temple of Solomon was cut. From the summit descending west to the sea, the view is very magnificent.—The mountains are at least ten thousand feet high, bristling and jagged in their appearance, and many of them with here and there an Arab village hanging on their sides. But the land cultivated, in patches on the mountains, and occasionally a little strip in the valleys, is very small. When we had descended entirely to the plain we entered the celebrated fruit and mulberry gardens surrounding Beyrout. The ground seemed to be literally covered with orchards and gardens. Through these are narrow streets, so much so that it is difficult to ride two abreast.—Having ridden for several hours within sight of the city, we all became impatient to get there.—Our horses, although tired and jaded, partook of our own excitement, and started one after the other into a full run, which was kept up for the last three miles, and until we got to the very gates of the city. The street was quite full of people, and as we approached one after another, they all gave way and let us have the entire road. Old people paused on their canes and crutches, and the young stared and wondered. In our Gilpin race, however, we came very near running over two or three women and children, who were so astonished at seeing such a strange apparition that they did not know which way to move, and consequently stood still. We appeared to them like so many Dutchmen flying through the air.—However, we either leaped our horses over them or by them, doing no other injury than giving them such a mortal flight that they will not forget it for years.

Beyrout is a beautiful city, so far as its natural position is taken into consideration, having the lofty mountains of Lebanon as a back ground, and the sea in front. It is semi-Europeanised in its business, but yet appears very much like all oriental towns. Our consul informed me that if we had got along ten days before, we should have had the pleasure of seeing something quite novel. It was on the occasion of the Pasha giving a grand ball to the English and French, on which occasion all the diplomatic corps, as well as consuls of all nations are invited. This was in imitation of one lately given by the Sultan at Constantinople, and indicates a great revolution in public opinion in reference to the sphere of woman among the subjects of the Sublime Porte; for she has ever been considered by them almost as degraded as the brute. The ball, I infer, was on a scale of magnificence and liberality, hardly equalled in large European or American cities. There were a great many French and English officers, dressed in gay uniforms, accompanied by their wives; rich merchants and business men from all countries, and all the foreign embassies and representatives of other countries—all accompanied by ladies. This was all strange to the Turks, and they looked with astonishment upon the female beauty that fairly glistened around them in pearls, diamonds and rich jewelry. By the custom of the country they could not bring their wives. The Pasha led off in the dance with the wife of the English Consul. It is said his own wife, for he has but one, saw the whole proceedings from a screened window overlooking this portion of the palace.

But there was an anecdote told me connected with the affair which illustrates the ignorance of the people here. Among others invited was a Turkish officer who commanded a company of Kurds, a wild race of people, occupying a country lying between Persia and Russia. One of his inferior officers, a Kurd, expressed so great a desire to go to the ball, that a ticket of admission was procured for him. In due time he was on the spot, dressed in his best regimentals, and gravely watching all the strange and, to him, novel sights that continually presented themselves. In some of the rooms there was playing of cards and, as is usual in this country among friends, there is always something put down on the table in the shape of money, to make the game interesting. In other rooms there was music and dancing. The former the Kurd understood, but the latter, after the European fashion, he knew nothing about. Some one asked him if he understood it. Oh yes, he said, perfectly—that at the tables they were playing for the women for wives, against money, but that previous to so doing they took them out into the halls to try them and see whether they were young and sprightly! On explaining it to him he would not believe it at all—said that if they were playing for money, they would not put up more than three or four pistoles at a time, but that he saw more pounds than that. The ball must have been a brilliant one, and I regretted very much I was not there to avail myself of Mr. Woods' politeness. Mr. Jewett, of the Buffalo Express, was there, and I have no doubt he has given a graphic account of it, which, ere this is published, will have found its way out west to many of your readers.

After resting here two or three days I was obliged to part once more with my travelling companions. This I regretted the more on leaving Mr. M., for I not only found in him a citizen of my own State, but a friend and a most agreeable companion. It was therefore with unfeigned regret that I left him to pursue his trip northward to Constantinople, while I went again south to Alexandria. From all the information I could get, to go the other way by Smyrna and Athens, it would take me twenty days to go to Venice, at the expense of $150, while it would take less time and money to return again to A., and thence to V. through the Atlantic. But it was not to be helped, and I choose the lesser evil. In three days more I was in A., and threading again its narrow streets. But it was not the place that I had left more than a month before. The weather was very hot and scorching, for the khamsin had just commenced for its fifty days of duration. I sometimes went out into the open air, when all at once a gust would come from the desert that made me feel as if I were in an actual oven, so great was the heat. I hardly ever spent a few days so unpleasantly as I did during the time I was waiting for a steamboat to start.

It is probably within the experience of every one, too, that in revisiting a spot where we have once spent happy hours, and we find those who have participated in and contributed to those pleasures, are gone, there is a painful sadness that obtrudes itself, which, is difficult to be shaken off. Once more I saw the camels, and their masters seated with their mahogany legs crosswise, keeping time with their bodies, as it were, to the awkward gait of their uncouth animals—the donkey-boys who had once afforded me great amusement were there also—the strange and motley groups of people of various grades and stations in life, once more passed in review before me—but I felt no curiosity nor interest in anything I saw—my feelings were far away over the sea, and I could enjoy nothing.—The season of travel as well as business of the city was over, and I verily believe I was the only stranger in the place. No human language can convey a better index of a persons loneliness under the circumstances, in a city like this, than Tom Moore when he says:

"I feel like one who treads alone,
Some banquet hall deserted,
Whose lights are shed, whose garlands dead,
And all but he departed."

While waiting for the steamer, I made some inquiries into the character of the Christian churches of Egypt. I find that they were divided into Copts and Jacobites. The former are the more numerous. They are governed by a patriarch who resides at Cairo. The clergy are composed of Orders of Saint Andrew, St. Paul and Saint Macarius. The next in authority to the patriarch is the titular patriarch of Jerusalem. To be elected patriarch, the applicant must have lived all his life in a continued continence. In order to be a Bishop, one of the qualifications is, that he must be celibate—or not to have been married more than once. Priests and inferior ministers are allowed to be married. The monastic life is held in great repute—to be admitted to it, must be with the consent of the Bishop. They then take a vow of perfect chastity and renounce the world and its follies. They are obliged then to sleep on the ground, with their clothes on, and with their girdles around them. Every night they are obliged to prostrate themselves one hundred and fifty times, so low that their faces and breasts will hit the earth.

The latter sect sprang from one Jacob, a Monk, who flourished about the year 550. They hold to the doctrine that there was but one nature in Jesus Christ. As to purgatory they are with the Greeks—they believe in no such place, although they pray for the souls of the dead.—There is a fine Catholic Church at Cairo, and also one at Alexandria. At the former of these are two missionary families, where services are held each Sabbath in English and Arabic, and at the latter there is a large and beautiful English church.

One day, seeing a small procession in the street, I went out, and learned that it was on the occasion of a visit to the city of the widow of Defterdar, whose history and tragic death I have alluded to in a former letter. She is the daughter of the great Mahomet Ali, and had come from Constantinople, where she resides, to see her royal brother, the Viceroy of Egypt. She is not only very old but very ugly looking. Her early excesses and crimes have so engraven themselves upon her countenance that it looks hideous. I was told in Cairo that she was a favorite daughter of Mahomet Ali, and that when she was quite young she had her own way about everything she chose. Among other charges, equally reprehensible, though not attended with such mystery, was the fact that wherever she saw any young men to whom she took a fancy, by some means or other he was invited to the palace, but was never known to leave it. Defterdar was a man of blood, yet thought by many not to be more than her equal.

Going to the steamboat office one day, I received the joyful intelligence that the mail from Calcutta was in, and the next day I should start. This was happy news to me—but more happy when the hour arrived and the bell rang for the last time, and our steamer had cleared the harbor of Alexandria and was shaping her bows for the Adriatic.

Col. Fremont the "Conqueror of California"—Mr. Buchanan's testimony!

In 1852 Col. Fremont was arrested in London for debts which he had contracted in his official capacity as Governor of California in the service of the United States. The Court of Exchequer appointed a Commission in the United States to take testimony in the case. The first witness before that Commissioner was James Buchanan. His evidence is given in full in Saturday's New York Tribune. From it we learn what was the opinion of Mr. Buchanan at that time of Col. Fremont. Among other precious items in the testimony is the following, given, it will be remembered, when there was no object, on the part of either Mr. Buchanan or his friends, to slander Mr. Fremont:

"Col. Fremont, the defendant, was in California at the commencement of hostilities between the United States and the Republic of Mexico; he there raised and commanded a battalion of California Volunteers, consisting of about four hundred men; his services were very valuable; he bore a conspicuous part in the conquest of California, and, in my opinion, is better entitled to be called the "Conqueror of California, than any other man."

The Straight Cut.

Every one who knows anything about Milwaukee matters knows well the importance to that city, and indeed to the State, of the Straight Cut. By means of this cut the entrance to Milwaukee Harbor will be made easy and safe in any weather, and the commerce of that city greatly increased. We speak of this matter because of its importance to our sister city and because is furnishes, in its conception and history, the best possible proof of the fitness of Jackson Hadley for Representative in Congress of the people of this district. To Mr. Hadley's indomitable exertions in behalf of this cut do the people of Milwaukee owe the now certain improvement of their harbor. He is and ever has been warmly interested in all such matters, and we have in this fact the best evidence of his fitness for the office for which he is placed in nomination.—Kenosha Democrat.

We hope the Democrat will keep up that train of argument till the day of election. If it would only add to its enumeration of Mr. HADLEY's claims, a few paragraphs about our city grades, it would place us under additional obligations.—Mr. HADLEY's performances have probably cost the people of our city about $100,000 during the past four years. If there is any merit in that, we trust the Kenosha people will invite him to emigrate thither.

FRIGHTFUL RUNAWAY.—A team attached to a lumber wagon, day before yesterday, on the Sun Prairie road, ran away, carrying detached parts of the whiffle tree, or neck yoke with them.—They overtook another wagon in which was seated a man and his wife. The runaway horses separated, one passing each side of the wagon, when a fragment of the neck-yoke or whiffletree caught the woman in the wagon, and dragged her out, and about 40 rods along the road. The horse then fell with two legs broken, and otherwise injured, and the woman was released. She was picked up insensible with a compound fracture of her leg, and a serious spinal injury.

She was attended by Dr. Ward of this city, under whose skilful care she is likely to recover, though with a loss of her limb. Her name is Mrs. Leary, and they reside about a mile from Sun Prairie village.—Madison Argus.

☞ Mr. Brooks, when on the fourth of March he commences his foray upon Washington, to seize the archives and treasury, will meet with an insurmountable difficulty. He can find the archives with little difficulty, but the treasury is at New York, and Philadelphia, and Boston, where the public revenues are collected, and he cannot get to those places without going through the enemy's country.—Providence Journal.

BOSTON, Sept. 21.

The East Boston steam flouring mill located on the wharf adjoining the ferry on the East Boston side, was nearly destroyed by fire at noon to-day. The building contained large quantities of grain and flour. Loss about $75,000—fully insured.

MASS MEETING OF REPUBLICANS

In the Sixth Ward.

ENTHUSIASTIC TIME.

Indecent Conduct of the Buchaniers.

The Fremonters of the 2d and 6th Wards had a good time on Monday night at their meeting at Prath's Hall, on Galena Street. The firing of cannon about dark excited the attention of other parts of the city, and assured the friends of the Good Cause that Freedom has staunch and active supporters in the old Gibraltar of Democracy, and so it is. The Fremont men of the 2d and 6th are wide awake and hard at work, and despite the unmannerly conduct of a crowd of Buchanan men, led on and encouraged by men who ought to have been ashamed of themselves, they held their meeting, the crowd who were for Fremont numbering over a thousand.

J. A. PHELPS was Chairman, and R. P. HOUGHTON Secretary. The speakers in German were Messrs. SOLL and DOMSCHKE, and Dr. RAUCH, and Mr. W. H. LORD spoke earnestly and effectively in English. The work of organization, and the circulation of documents is going on steadily in that part of the city, and with good effect. The People are thinking.

We regret that we should have to record that a large crowd of bogus democrats, whose subserviency to party shows them to be the fit supporters of Slavery, and led on by a few men of influence, and men, too, who know better, were guilty of the meanness of attempting to break up the meeting. They kept up a continual cry of "Democrats herauf!" (democrats come out!) they gathered in an adjoining room, making such a din as almost to drown the voices of the speakers—they in fact did everything but compel an adjournment by actual force, and we regret to have to state that Ald. HAERTEL, who was present, on being appealed to to stop the noise, not only refused, but encouraged the rioters by saying that it was "all right." How much his party will make out of it remains to be seen. We don't believe the Germans are slaves, to be beaten or bullied, or frightened, into keeping away from Fremont meetings, or from voting in such a way as their consciences tell them will be surest for Freedom. Let these bogus democrats try the same game for a few times more, and the old Gibraltar will roll up a majority for FREMONT. So mote it be!

Communicated to the Sentinel.

Ladies Kansas Aid Society.

On Friday last a respectable number of ladies met at Mrs. E. D. Holton's, on Third street, and organized a society for the purpose of extending aid, and sympathy to the suffering and destitute in Kansas.

A large number are interesting themselves in this cause of humanity. We invite all the ladies of Milwaukee, without distinction, to join with us.

The second of October a grand Fremont Convention will be held in this city, and the ladies of this Society design entertaining those present with a sumptuous dinner, the avails of which will assist in the work.

Ladies of Milwaukee, the women of Kansas are appealing to us! Can we remain quiet? can we sit by our own hearth-stones and read the exciting, exasperating news which daily reaches us, without some beneficial expression of piety?

We can, if we will, do something. Let it be done quickly. Winter is coming; communication with agents in Kansas is now open to us; that communication may soon be cut off. We repeat, expedition is necessary.

Mrs. A. J. AIKENS, Sec'y.

☞ We cheerfully give place to the following, which we find in the Free Democrat of last evening. No one, we presume, supposes that Messrs. Schoeffler and Wendt received and applied to their own use, double pay for the same service. We understood the case precisely as Mr. Potter explains it. It illustrates the method of doing business under the late dynasty, admirably:

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 23, 1856.

EDITOR FREE DEMOCRAT:

DEAR SIR:—Will you have the kindness to publish the following statement of Hon. John F. Potter, Secretary of the Investigating Committee, and writer of the report to the Legislature, which state next we have procured after the publication of said report, and after reading your comments on the supposed double payment to us by the State. We explained to Judge Potter and other members of the Committee the mistake under which Mr. Seaver must have labored when he made his statement, and after a careful examination of our accounts with the State, Judge Potter, in behalf of the Committee, signed the following explanation:

MADISON, Sept. 18, 1856.

H. ving learned by Mr. Schoeffler, of the firm of Schoeffler & Wendle, that the remarks in the Report of the Investigating Committee of the Legislature, relating to the testimony of D. M. Seaver, have been so constructed by several papers as if that firm had actually received double payment on appropriations made to them by the Legislature, we deem it not more than just to state that said remarks were only intended to illustrate the practice heretofore prevailing in paying appropriations from the State by accepting drafts, and that no other proof was had that they ever had been paid twice on any appropriation made to them, than the statement of Mr. Seaver, and that their accounts in the books of the Secretary of State and the State Treasurer are strictly in accordance with their appropriation as they were made from time to time for demands against the State for printing.

JOHN F. POTTER.
Sec'y of Committee.

Our Democratic cotemporaries throughout the State, and other editors will, we hope, do us also the justice of publishing the above, to remove ever the suspicion of any attempt on our part to exact double payment for work done for the State.

SCHOEFFLER & WENDT.
Publishers of Banner & Volkesfreund.

☞ With an unbounded enthusiasm for Fremont in this State, we still lack speakers for public meetings, and are glad to be able to announce any who can be had for those occasions. We understand that Mr. CHAMPION VAUGHN, late of the Free Democrat, is at leisure, and his services can be obtained by addressing him at this city. Mr. Vaughn is a ready and eloquent speaker, and a thorough Republican.

A BROTHER.—Judge MARSH, of New Jersey, who presided at the Philadelphia Convention which nominated Fillmore and Donelson, seeing the tendency of all things towards the one issue of Slavery extension, and determined to make his influence felt for Freedom, regardless of past political affinities, has come out for Fremont, and is addressing meetings in his own State.

LOST.

A large-sized, glazed traveling bag, at the Walker House; on Saturday the 13th inst., containing a black frock coat, black silk vest, several pairs of shirts, brushes, &c.—also an ordinary-sized daguerreotype picture. It is supposed some traveler took it from the office of the hotel, mistaking it for his own. One left in its stead containing clothing marked W. E. Rowland, or Rowley.

The picture was of a dear friend, now no more, and highly prized. Should this notice meet the eye of the person who took the bag in question, he will be suitably rewarded for return of it. Send to "H. E. State Journal Office, Madison, Wis."

Wreck at Port Washington.

Last Saturday morning, about 11 o'clock, a very small apology for a steamboat, better known, we think, as a tug boat, came along side the North Pier for the purpose of wooding. From the hands aboard we learn that they had a pretty hard time in coming across the Lake on Saturday night.

It appears that a week or two previous they had run on a sand bar at Muskegon, Mich., where she belongs, and was in a leaking condition. On Saturday afternoon they started for Milwaukee to make repairs, with only one compass, and that put into a box which interfered with the needle and caused them to lose their course. There being a pretty heavy sea on during the night she commenced leaking pretty badly, so much that at 5 o'clock Sunday morning there was so much water in her that every time a sea struck her the water would put out her fires, and while they should have had from 90 to 100 lbs. of steam, they could raise but 40 lbs.

They had a small boat in tow, which filled with water, and were obliged to cut it adrift to make as much of the steam they had as possible. At about 8 o'clock they came in sight of this place, which they took to be Milwaukee, until about 9 o'clock. Seeing their mistake, they put in here to get wood, and intended to proceed to Milwaukee forthwith. While at dinner they left the engine at work pumping, thinking that by the time they returned she would be nearly dry. But much to their surprise, when they returned they found the water to be gaining on the pumps so fast that they took pails etc., but all to no purpose.

After considering a while, they concluded to run her ashore and save her, if possible, by scuttling her and pumping her our when the sea went down. The sea went down during Sunday afternoon and evening, and everything looked prosperous, and the Captain had gone to Milwaukee after a steam pump. But the old concern was a goner; she was bound to leave her bones in Port Washington. The wind raising on Monday night, they gave up all hopes of saving her, and at once proceeded to save her machinery, which is not much damaged, and can be used again.—Ozaukee Advocate.

News from Oregon.

We are in receipt of Portland papers of the 2d of August.

From the Oregonian we learn that two more severe Indian battles have been fought since last accounts.

On the 6th of May, Major Layton with 142 men, composed of the Washington and Oregon volunteers, set out in pursuit of the enemy, up John Day's river, but did not overtake them until they had reached the head waters of the Burnt river, where he came up with them on the 15th; but before the advance guard saw even a single Indian, they fired, killing two of the whites, John Estis and John Smith, both of Oregon, where they leave large families. The fighting continued the next day, being carried on in a rough canyon; the Indians occupying the hills, giving them every advantage, notwithstanding which between 30 and 40 of their number were killed, besides many being wounded. One of the whites was also severely wounded.

On the same day of the engagement on Burnt river, Col. Shaw started for the Grand Ronde Valley with 210 men. On the 17th he reached the Grand Ronde river and found a large body of Indians encamped on the west side of it. He immediately attacked them, when, after a short resistance, they fled down the river, the volunteers pursuing them for 8 or 10 miles, until they escaped in the mountains, killing about 40 of their number and wounding many others.

Forty or fifty Indian horses were killed, and 200 head of horses and mules captured. Several thousand pounds of 'cames' and 'couse,' a kind of food which the enemy were collecting and drying, were destroyed. Great quantities of powder and lead were taken, the savages having, contrary to general belief, sufficient of these articles to carry on war for years.

MARRIED.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

MARINE DISASTER.—Captain Alexander, of the Propeller Iowa, brought the news of the sinking of the barque Col. Camp in a collision with the Propeller Plymouth, in the straits. The Col Camp was bound down, with a cargo of 16,000 bushels of wheat; the crew of the Camp were all saved.

The stem of the propeller was knocked away, and her crank cracked; she put into the Beavers for repairs, and would then proceed on her voyage.

Marine Disasters.

From the Chicago Tribune.

DISMASTED.—The schooners Stella and Alpha made this port, with the loss of their mainmasts.

The schooner J. E. Shaw is ashore at St. Helena Island. She was loaded with 15,000 bushels wheat for Oswego, from J. C. Wright & Co., of this city, and both vessel and cargo was fully insured. The schooner S. J. Holly, in the same gale of Thursday, ran on to her anchor, at False Presque Isle, Lake Huron, and sank with her sail under water. She was also laden with 15,000 bushels of wheat for Oswego, for the same parties as the Shaw, which, with the vessel was fully insured at Oswego. Both the Holly and Shaw were owned by Latham, Tuttle & Perry. The brig Evalina, laden with corn for the same parties, to Oswego, split her main sail and lost her chains and anchor in the same gale, but went on her way to Oswego.

We have reports of the schooner Sandusky ashore on the Michigan side, but nothing reliable.

The GEN. ATKINSON, Capt. Watts, of the Queen City, reports the blow on Thursday as terrific. The Queen City was heavily laden with freight above and below, 40 horses on deck, some 200 cabin and steerage passengers on board. Unable to land at Mackinac Thursday morning, she put back into Lake Huron, and sailed back and forth all day in the ice of Bois Blanc Island, not daring to cast anchor for fear of losing them. But she gallantly weathered the gale, and reached Mackinac Thursday evening, with some inconsiderable damage, which $100 would cover. She then met the steamer Lady Elgin, and the Keystone State got there safely, but with some water in her, as the Queen came out Friday morning.

POLICE COURT, SEPTEMBER 23.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

James Brady, drunk and disorderly, fined $5.

A warrant was issued against John and Henry Persons, charging them with disorderly conduct.

A warrant was issued against Johann Steiben, charging him with assault and battery upon Edward Sharf.

CIRCUIT COURT, SEPT. 23.

JUDGE RANDALL PRESIDING.

The case of Belange vs Crocker still continued to occupy the Court for the fifth day, and no prospect of its ending in five days more. At one time, yesterday, one of the counsel was busily engaged in discussing the fundamental laws of the ancient territory of Wisconsin.

The following prisoners have been arraigned upon indictments found by the Grand Jury.

Mesa Orb, stealing in a dwelling house a black silk mantilla, valued at $15, plead not guilty.

John B. Brown, larceny in a dwelling house, plead guilty, and sentenced to one year's imprisonment in State Prison.

David D. Herold, larceny in a shop, stealing a pair of tailor's shears of the value of $1, plead not guilty.

Richmond L. Guerin, larceny in a shop, stealing dry goods, &c., plead not guilty.

Patrick McCarty, indicted for burglary and larceny, stealing about $1 worth of carpenter's tools, plead not guilty.

Frederick Meyer, indicted for burglary, plead not guilty.

Chas. Pendergrast and George Glute, indicted for simple larceny, stealing a gold watch chain and pocket book, of the value in all of $91, plead not guilty.

Henry Bauer, indicted for burglary, plead not guilty.

Richard Phillips, indicted for burglary in the day time, plead not guilty.

Edward McGrevy, indicted for larceny in a dwelling house, stealing about $18 in money, plead not guilty.

Albert A. Sloan, indicted for larceny in a dwelling house, and stealing a pair of boots of the value of $6, plead guilty, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100: the fine was paid, and the defendant discharged.

A Fish Story—A Wonderful Fish.

Yesterday morning, as we were seated in our sanctum, calmly combing down the News, as usual, we were suddenly made aware of the entrance of a tall, and, we must say, good-looking man, who was accompanied by a stout German, the latter lugging in a long, narrow red box, looking, at first sight, like a coffin. We immediately looked around for our reporter, so that we might be ready to tell the time of day, expecting nothing less than an attack upon Free Speech, Fremont and ourselves.

The German proceeded deliberately to place his box in a convenient position, and taking out a key, opened it, presenting to our view the most remarkable fish, stuffed, that we have ever seen, "Elephant fish," we should call him, for his trunk, "hat-fish," for his singular wings.

It was caught in the Wisconsin river, the owner having watched for it, at intervals, for three months. It is 4½ feet long, quite slender, being only 8 inches "across the shoulders"—swims very fast. It has no scales, but a smooth, oily skin—has no teeth—no gills, has large posterior fins, and the tail of the fast swimmers. It has two remarkable peculiarities; one is its long, flat, flexible trunk, projecting from the upper jaw about a foot, rounded at the extremity; the other is its singular side fins, which project from its sides when in the water, over 2 feet, and are more like the wings of a bat than anything else that we know of. In the specimen these wings are glued to the sides of the fish.

The owner is on his way so present the fish to that great fish-monger, Prof. Agassiz, who knows all about those things. In order to pay his expenses, he is exhibiting the curiosity on the way, at a dime a sight. It is worth a good deal more than that.

THE STRAIGHT GET.—A visit to this important work the other day, showed us that it is progressing surely, if rather slowly. About 500 feet of the crib forming the South pier are laid and secured in their places, and nearly the same length of the North pier, but on this side, three or four of the cribs are set at the Eastern end, leaving a space between them and the inner part of the same pier. The temporary breakwater extends from the North pier across to within about 50 feet of the South pier, and in this space there is a good channel, varying from 6½ to 7½ feet water, and vessels occasionally pass through it. The Steam Tug Fish, her wheel requiring 7 ft water, passed through on Saturday last.

The work looks solid and durable. The steam dredge is constantly at work, clearing out the channel inside of the breakwater, and in sinking the places for the portions of the piers which extend along the sides of the basin inside. Whether or not it is intended to open the channel for navigation this fall, we do not know, though from the present condition of the work, we think it might easily be done.

New Publications.

"SIGNAL FIRES" is the striking title of a volume of stirring lyrics on prominent scenes and events in the life of Colonel FREMONT, forming almost a complete biography of the Pathfinder, and written in a tasteful and spirited manner by a well known American poet. The book comprises 160 pages, neatly printed, and cannot fail to do good service in the ensuing campaign struggle. It is addressed to the young men of the Free States, and its appeal is eloquent and powerful. Its contents are admirably adapted to the purpose of public recitation at club-meetings and such use of it might be made effective almost almost beyond measure.

Dayton & Burdick, of New York, publish it.

HARDWARE AT RETAIL.—There are on record cases of men who have achieved greatness, or had greatness thrust upon them, whose early friends neglected to keep aloof from them, supposing that, in their greatness they feel above them. By their advertisement to-day, it will be seen that no such supposition has any foundation in the case of Messrs. HENRY J. NAZRO & Co., who in their grand store, the finest in the West, and scarcely surpassed anywhere, are just as glad to see retail customers as ever. A considerable portion of their large space is expressly fitted up for the retail trade, and with a large stock and experienced and attentive clerks, they offer great inducements to purchasers.

COLD SPRING RACE COURSE.—The race, yesterday, best 3 in 5, mile heats, was won by S. B. Davis' stallion, Barney Burton, taking three heats. Time 2,58 —2,59, —.

To-day several crack nags are entered for a running race, 2 miles and repeat. Two of the fastest horses in the State, Little Flea and Maria Hamilton, and another smart one, Champion, are entered for the purse.

DELEGATES TO THE FILLMORE CONVENTION To-Day.—A couple of Ojibbeways or Pawnee Indians were in town, yesterday, probably to attend the Fillmore convention to-day. One of them had a certificate that he was "unable to get a living by labor," and was recommended to the charity of the public. He was drunk as an "injin" before night.

HARPER FOR OCTOBER.—A. WILSON and E. C. ARNOLD, have received their supplies of Harper, and are ready to supply their customers as usual.

WILSON has received the monthly number of that excellent serial for children, "Harper's Story Book," and will supply the youngsters with their regular numbers.

ANOTHER FLAG.—A beautiful national flag was yesterday raised over the shop of MARTIN & REGAR. The flag bears the inscription of "JOHN C. FREMONT, FREEDOM, UNION AND SOIL &c. The sympathies of the mechanics are with Freedom and Fremont.

MORE RAILROAD IRON.—Received yesterday by barque Newman, 200 tons; schooner Ballard 207 tons; and schooner Marquette 173 tons iron for Mil. & Miss. R. R., and by schooner Miami 1,738 bars for Mil. & Watertown R. R.

A CARD.—The members of the Chicago Cricket Club desire to return their thanks to the Superintendent of the Milwaukee Railroad, for kindly passing them over that road on their late visit to Milwaukee and back for half fare. Likewise to the conductors for their gentlemanly courtesies during the trip.

TO LUMBER MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS.

VALUABLE Property at private sale, situated on the Straits opposite New Town, and on the Sheboygan River, containing about 30,000 acres of land, a large portion of which is heavily timbered with best quality of pine. There are two mills on this property, viz.—the village of DUNCAN, on the main land South Channel to pass, is a large steam Mill, of modern construction, with 8 Gang Machines, Shingle and Lath Machines, and capable of manufacturing fifty thousand feet of lumber in 24 hours; also, Hook's Land Office, Store, and sundry dwelling houses and buildings built at the village.

Hook's Mill, on and near the mouth of Sheboygan River. The Sheboygan Water Mill, one mile from the mouth, with dwelling houses, barns, &c. At Hook's Mill is erected, extending out to sufficient depth of water to accommodate any vessel navigating the Lakes This is admitted by navigators by reason of the bay and Pier, to be the best Lake Harbor between Detroit and Chicago—it is a deep thie Wooding and Coaling Point, being on the direct route for Propellers and sailing vessels. This property is desirable as a point at which a town must soon grow up, as the country back of it is fast filling up, for many miles, with settlers

The Sheboygan Water Mill has the entire power of Sheboygan River, a never failing stream of great volume, which never freezes; the dam being at the falls of the river, is easily kept in repair. This is the most valuable water privilege in the State of Michigan, north of Grand Rapids.

To a company or individuals, desirous of entering into the umber trade, this property offers rare inducements, with a certainty of speedily realizing a very few years, and will be sold much below original cost, or present value, to close a concern.

GREAT and extensive sale of all the Machinery, Engines, Tools, Patterns, Irons, Moulds, and everything of every character whatever, which are now in use in the Menomonee Locomotive Foundry, on the Fifth Ward, I will commence to sell the same on the 8th day of October next, and will continue sale from day to day, until all and every article is sold. The said Company having now been dissolved. The amount of machinery, tools, &c., &c., cost upward of twenty thousand dollars, but it will be sold for whatever it will bring. All who are engaged in such establishments had best be on hand. CALEB WALL,

City Auction Room and Land Office.

A VALUABLE new Brick House and lot, Seventh Ward, on Marshall st., to be sold at public auction on Thursday, October 2d, at 10 o'clock, for cash, A portion of the money can remain for a short time. The house is entirely new, finished last fall, and is complete in every particular. On the first floor there is a large hall, two large parlours, sitting room, library room, dining room, kitchen pantry. Second story, five large sized chambers, third story or attic, three bed rooms. All the rooms are furnished in the best and latest style The house is lit with gas throughout; it is also finished off with bathing rooms, &c., &c. In fact it is in every comfort and convenience about the house one wants or desires. It was built in the very best of manner. It was not built to sell, but owing to unforseen events, the owner is compelled to sell it, owing to other arrangements and engagements which he has entered into. The said house is the one immediately north, joining to Wm. B. Hibbard, Esq., on Marshall st. It is useless for me to say that Marshall st. is one of the pleasantest and handsomest streets in the city of Milwaukee, and if ever is no street where property is so valuable and the neighborhood so desirable. The grading of the streets, and the paving of the gutters is all completed. In a word, it is a very choice place, and it must and will be sold for it has to be sold and that for cash. So all who want a good house in a good neighborhood, and a good sale. A few days will be given after the sale to allow the purchaser to raise the money which, if he wants, he, no doubt, can easily do, by giving a mortgage on said property. But five per cent. cash will be required to be paid down, at the day of sale

GREAT SALE of valuable Lots in Wright's Addition, joining Sherman's Addition, in 6th Ward; it is well known, (and these who do not know it ought to know it) that there is no part of the 6th Ward filling up so rapidly and permanently as Sherman's Addition and along Third street, up to where Wright's Addition commences are stores of various kinds, and it is a beautiful location, not to be surpassed in Milwaukee, as property, in my opinion, which is now offered for sale, which holds out such inducements for those who want to secure themselves a home, and those who have money to money to invest, as the Lots in Wright's Addition. Remember that Wright's Addition commences on the next street above Beaubien street in Sherman's Addition; another fact, the Lots in Wright's Addition are full, old fashioned standard, which are now being offered for sale. I will sell it a few days, have plats of said Addition, which can be obtained at my store. The sale of said property will take place on Tuesday, October 6th at at 10 o'clock, at my store.

The terms are as follows:
⅓ cash, balance in 1 and 2 years at 7 per cent interest, or ⅓ cash, balance in 1, 2 and 3 years, at 6 per cent int., or, 1-3 cash, balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years, at 10 per cent interest.

Persons have the choice of terms.

This is the best in the world.

The old Eagle going it with a Rush!

THE EAGLE
STEAM FOUNDRY!
—OF—
TURTON & SERCOMB,
295 298, 300, 302 and 304 West Water St.

IS STILL IN FULL BLAST, WORKING DAY AND night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this, the proprietors have erected a large brick foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planing or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a Machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of —— horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to the former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and in any department.

In regard to the character of the work got up by this

The Oldest Establishment in the State

the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is that they are both Practical Mechanics, and know how work should be done as well as the next man.

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES, on the most approved principles.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORKS, such as GUAGE AND CRUDDLE COCKS, OIL CUPS AND CAPS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S PLUG, which they still sell at the lowest cash price.

They are also Agents for EASTMAN'S PATENT STEAM GUAGE, which are well worth the attention of all those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continuance of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Raw or Blooming Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of its reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior"
